

What is Salem Kolleg?

Who is it for?

The Gap Year at Salem Kolleg comprehensively explores the natural sciences, social sciences, and humanities through its interdisciplinary general studies program.

From psychology and international politics to digital storytelling, the curriculum at Salem Kolleg is as dynamic and versatile as life itself, offering you ideal opportunities to explore your interests and develop your strengths. Experience the university atmosphere by attending lectures at the University of Applied Sciences (HTWG) and the University of Konstanz. Beyond academics, the program includes block seminars on diverse topics, as well as courses in theater, music, languages, and sports.

A highlight of the program is the "Social Realities Europe" research trip, which provides hands-on insights into contemporary issues. Additionally, our comprehensive life design coaching supports you in making informed, thoughtful decisions about your studies and future career. During your Gap Year, you'll reside in shared flats on the campus in Überlingen, with stunning views of Lake Constance — a unique environment to prepare for the next chapter of your journey.
